GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL PERMITS

In accepting this permit, the permittee, his successors and assigns, agree to protect Cowlitz County, Washington, and save it harmless from all claims, actions or damages of every kind and description which may accrue to or be suffered by any person, or persons, corporation or property by reason of the performance of any such work, character of materials used or manner of installation, maintenance and operation or by the improper occupancy of rights of way or public place or public structure and in case of any suit or action is brought against said county for damages arising out of or by reason of any of the above causes, the permittee, his successors or assigns will upon notice to him or them of commencement of such action, defend the same at his or their own sole cost and expense and will satisfy any judgment after the said suit or action shall have finally been determined if adverse to the said county.

If the work done under this permit interferes in any way with the drainage of the county road, the permittee shall wholly and at their own expense make such provision as the county may direct to take care of said drainage.

On completion of the activity identified in this permit, all rubbish and debris shall be immediately removed and the roadway and roadside shall be left neat, presentable and satisfactory to the County.

During the progress of the work such barriers shall be erected and maintained as may be necessary or as may be directed for the protection of the traveling public; the barriers shall be properly lighted at night.

The County may revoke, annul, change, amend, amplify, or terminate this permit or any of the conditions listed herein, if permittee fails to comply with any or all of its provisions, requirements or regulations as herein set forth or through willful or unreasonable neglect, fails to heed or comply with notices given or if the utility herein granted is not installed or operated and maintained in conformity herewith or at all or for any cause or reason whatsoever.
