New Pit-Style Restroom at Coweeman River Park

The new pit-style restroom at Coweeman River Park is open to the public.

Coweeman River Park provides you with one of the last open public access points to the Coweeman River. There are two trails that have been created to lead you down to the river, however, trail conditions are primitive and unstable. There is a parking lot and picnic tables on site.

Directions:

The park is 10.7 miles up Rose Valley Road, just past Masada Drive. It is the first gate on the right past 6005 Rose Valley Road, located on a very sharp corner. There is a metal gate that says 'Rules and Regulations'. GPS directions are not always accurate so please look for the Rules sign.
