GR 27 FAMILY LAW COURTHOUSE FACILITATORS (a) Generally. RCW 26.12.240 provides a county may create a courthouse facilitator program to provide basic services to pro se litigants in family law cases. This Rule applies only to courthouse facilitator programs created pursuant to RCW 26.12.240. (b) The Washington State Supreme Court shall create a Family Courthouse Facilitator Advisory Committee supported by the Administrative Office of the Courts to establish minimum qualifications and administer a curriculum of initial and ongoing training requirements for family law courthouse facilitators. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall assist counties in administering family law courthouse facilitator programs. (c) Definitions. For the purpose of this rule the following definitions apply:

- (1) A Family Law Courthouse Facilitator is an individual or individuals who has or have met or exceeded the minimum qualifications and completed the curriculum developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts and who is or are providing basic services in family law cases in a Superior Court.
- (2) Family Law Cases include, but not limited to, dissolution of marriage, modification of dissolution matters such as child support, parenting plans, non-parental custody or visitation, and parentage by unmarried persons to establish paternity, child support, child custody and visitation.
- (3) "Basic Service" includes but is not limited to:
  - a) referral to legal and social service resources, including lawyer referral and alternate dispute referral programs and resources on obtaining family law forms and instructions;
  - b) assistance in calculating child support using standardized computer based program based on financial information provided by the pro se litigant;
  - c) assistance in selection as well as distribution of forms and standardized instructions that have been approved by the court, clerk's office, or the Administrative Office of the Courts;
  - d) assistance in completing forms that have been approved by the court, clerk's office, or the Administrative Office of the Courts;
  - e) explanation of legal terms;
  - f) information on basic court procedures and logistics including requirements for service, filing, scheduling hearings and complying with local procedures;
  - g) review of completed forms to determine whether forms have been completely filled out but not as to substantive content with respect to the parties' legal rights and obligations;
  - h) previewing pro se documents prior to hearings for matters such as dissolution of marriage and show cause and temporary relief motions calendars under the direction of the Clerk or Court to determine whether procedural requirements have been complied with;
  - i) preparation of pro se instruction packets under the direction of the Administrative Office of the Courts;
  - j) Family Law Courthouse Facilitators shall, whenever reasonably practical, obtain a written and signed disclaimer of attorney- client relationship, attorney-client confidentiality and representation from each person utilizing the services of the Family Law Courthouse Facilitator. The prescribed disclaimer shall be in the format developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts;
  - k) No attorney-client relationship or privilege is created, by implication or by inference, between a Family Law Courthouse Facilitator providing basic services under this rule and the users of Family Law Courthouse Facilitator Program services.
  - l) Family law courthouse facilitators providing basic services under this rule are not engaged in the unauthorized practice of law. Upon a courthouse facilitator's voluntary or involuntary termination from a courthouse facilitator program, that person is no longer a courthouse facilitator providing services pursuant to RCW 26.12.240 or this Rule.
